Subject: Request for Display of CADSARI-2026 Conference Content on AIIMS LED Display Screens

Respected Sir/Madam,

Greetings from the All India Medical Laboratory Technologist Association (AIMLTA), Delhi State.

This is to kindly inform you that CADSARI-2026 – Conference on Advancing Diagnostic Science Through Academic Development, Research & Innovation is being organised on 02 November 2026 (Monday) at the JL Auditorium, AIIMS, New Delhi, in Offline and Online modes.

The theme of the conference is:

"Advancing Diagnostic Excellence, Academic Innovation & Research for a Better Healthcare Future."

The conference aims to bring together medical laboratory professionals, scientists, clinicians, academicians, researchers and students on a common platform to share scientific knowledge, present research, discuss recent developments and promote academic collaboration and innovation in diagnostic sciences.

In view of the upcoming conference, we kindly request your approval and support for displaying the approved CADSARI-2026 conference poster/content on the LED Display Screens installed at AIIMS, New Delhi, particularly at locations that may appropriately inform AIIMS faculty, staff, students, patients/attendants and visitors about the academic event.

As per the AIIMS Office Memorandum dated 30.01.2026, the authorization for display of content on the LED Display Screens is to be done by the Prof.-in-Charge, Media Cell, and requests are required to be submitted at least 7 working days before the intended date of display. director2-2-2-26

We therefore request the Media Cell to kindly consider displaying the CADSARI-2026 conference poster/information on the available AIIMS LED Display Screens for an appropriate period before and/or during the conference, as deemed suitable by the Media Cell.

The final approved digital content/poster will be submitted along with this request for necessary processing and display.

The display of the conference information through the AIIMS LED screens will help in wider dissemination of the academic event and encourage participation and awareness among healthcare professionals, students, researchers and visitors at AIIMS. It will also contribute to promoting the objectives of CADSARI-2026 and encouraging academic and research engagement in diagnostic sciences.

We shall be grateful for your kind consideration and support in facilitating the display of the conference content.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours sincerely,
