F. No. 40-30/2025-Estt.I

07.10.2025

Sub: Submission of action taken report by the compliance monitoring committee for ensuring effective implementation of collegium system at AIIMS New Delhi reg.

AIIMS New Delhi has implemented the Collegium System of Departmental Governance vide Notification No. F. 1-2//Misc(RH)/2023-Acad.II dated August 31, 2023. Subsequently vide OM No. 40-30/2025-Estt.I dt. 29.01.2025 (copy attached), a compliance monitoring committee (CMC) has been constituted for ensuring the effective implementation of the Collegium System with the following terms of reference:

- Review the implementation of the Collegium system across all departments.
- Ensure compliance with established guidelines and procedures.
- Address grievances and complaints related to the collegium.
- Provide recommendations for improvements and reforms in these systems.
- Submit monthly department-wise reports to the Dean (Academics) on the status of implementation of DO letter No. N.V.-16020/54/2023-INI-I dated 18.07.2023.

Further, as several faculty members had requested unhindered access to the minutes of the collegium meetings of their departments, it was decided vide OM No. 40-30/2025-Estt.I dt. 21.02.2025, that all Departments shall forward the minutes of their collegium meetings to Dean (Academics) and the academic section shall host all the collegium meeting minutes on the AIIMS intranet in coordination with the computer facility.

The undersigned has again been approached by a few faculty members regarding the functioning of collegium system in their respective departments. In this regard, it is reiterated that all faculty members having any grievance regarding the functioning of the collegium system in their departments, may submit a written representation to the member secretary of the CMC, so that a formal record of their grievance is available with the committee to review during their monthly meetings. The CMC is requested to mark a copy of the monthly department wise status reports to the undersigned as well for information.
